

Petition for Relief from a Conviction or Sentence by a Person in State Custody
(Petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254)

Instructions

1. This form is a petition for relief challenging (A) a state court judgment of conviction or sentence, or (B) how the state is carrying out a state court judgment of sentence.
2. If you want to challenge a federal judgment that imposed a sentence, you should file a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 in the federal court that entered the judgment.
3. If you want to challenge a state court order for pretrial detention, a federal order for detention, or how a federal judgment of sentence or federal order of detention is being carried out, you should file a petition for habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 in the federal court for the district in which you are detained or incarcerated.
4. Make sure the form is typed or neatly written.
5. You must tell the truth and sign the form. If you make a false statement of a material fact, you may be prosecuted for perjury.
6. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If you do not fill out the form properly, you will be asked to submit additional or corrected information. If you want to submit a brief or arguments, you must submit them in a separate memorandum.
7. You must pay a fee of $5. If the fee is paid, your petition will be filed. If you cannot pay the fee, you may ask to proceed in forma pauperis (as a poor person). To do that, you must fill out the enclosed AO 240 form. Also, you must submit a certificate signed by an officer at the institution where you are confined showing the amount of money that the institution is holding for you.
8. In this petition, you may challenge the judgment entered by only one court. If you want to challenge a judgment entered by a different court (either in the same state or in different states), you must file a separate petition.
9. When you have completed the form, send the original to the Clerk of the United States District Court at the following address:

Clerk, U.S. District Court
399 Federal Bldg.
110 Michigan St., NW
Grand Rapids, MI 49503

10. CAUTION: You must include in this petition all the grounds for relief from the conviction or sentence that you challenge. And you must state the facts that support each ground. If you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

18. TIMELINESS OF PETITION: If your judgment of conviction became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) does not bar your petition.*

*The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA") as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) provides in part that:

- (1) A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of –
 - (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;
 - (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;
 - (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
 - (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.
- (2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

19. Notice to Petitioner Regarding Consent

In accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 73, you are hereby notified that the United States magistrate judges of this district court may, upon your consent, conduct any or all proceedings in this case, including entry of a final judgment. If you consent, any appeal from a judgment entered by a magistrate judge shall be taken directly to the United States Court of Appeals for this judicial circuit in the same manner as an appeal from any other judgment of a district court.

Magistrate judges have greater flexibility in their schedules than district judges, who have heavy criminal caseloads that take priority over civil matters. Accordingly, the magistrate judges are generally able to address habeas petitions sooner. Magistrate judges are experienced trial judges who handle a great number of prisoner habeas petitions.

Your decision to consent to the dispositive jurisdiction of a United States magistrate judge is entirely voluntary. If you do not consent to a magistrate judge, the case will be randomly assigned to a district judge. The magistrate judge already assigned to this case would continue to decide all matters, including the merits of your habeas petition by report and recommendation.

Please check ONE box below to indicate whether you voluntarily consent to proceed with a United States magistrate judge or if you would instead prefer that the case be assigned to a district judge.

- I hereby voluntarily consent to the United States magistrate judge conducting all proceedings in this case, including entry of a final judgment and all post-judgment matters.
- I request that this case be assigned to a district judge.

20. Declaration and Signature

Therefore, petitioner asks that the Court grant him or her the relief to which he may be entitled in this proceeding.
